

RINALDI DOMUS

White wine

Grape variety Chardonnay - Sauvignon
The percentages of different grape varieties are determined according to each single year.

Region of origin of grapes Trentino-Alto Adige and Veneto

Vineyard elevation 500/700 mt asl

Finishing In oak barriques originating from the Massif Central in France. The finishing times in the barriques are variable and based on the grape harvests.

Alcoholic content 14% vol.

TASTING NOTES

Olfactory examination This wine encloses the essence of summer, the perfume of flowery mountain fields, of a basket of apples with a very elegant touch of exotic.

Gustatory examination A marked minerality and a hit of juicy and fleshy white peaches, passion fruit and pineapple. A surprising sapid finish with a spiced complexity.

Pairing Seafood, white meat and vegetarian menus.

Serving suggestions Serve at 8°C in a medium sized crystal goblet.